

The English Workbook

Level 1

Introduction

The English Workbook is the 3rd booklet of Level 1. The 12 lessons deal with (1) the parts of speech in the simple sentence, (2) the parts of the simple sentence — using only the vocabulary and sentence patterns introduced in the reader, The Good Father.

Each grammar point taught is followed by exercises and sentence pattern drills. And at the end of each lesson, there are comprehension exercises on The Good Father.

Keys to the exercises are given at the end of the booklet. The student can work his way right through the booklet without any other aid, mark his own work and assess his own progress.

Singular and plural nouns

Singular means one. Plural means more than one.

Singular noun	Plural noun	Singular noun	Plural noun
son	sons	way	ways
father	fathers	city	cities
animal	animals	man	men
lesson	lessons	food	----
home	homes	money	----

Most plural nouns are formed by adding s to the singular noun — e.g. son, sons — way, ways.

Some plural nouns are formed by changing the last letter y into ies — e.g. city, cities.

A — Grammar and Exercises

The Sentence — Subject and Object

Read these three words — The man came.

They make complete sense. They are a sentence.

came is the verb or action word. the man does the action.

the man is the subject of the verb came.

Remember — A sentence must

- (1) make complete sense —
- (2) have a subject —
- (3) have a verb.

Here is another sentence — Jesus healed the woman.

healed is the verb or action word. Jesus is the subject of the verb healed.

the woman gets the action. the woman is the object.

Some verbs must have objects — e.g. the verbs in these sentences.

Subject	Verb	Object
The man	loves	his two sons.
Peter and I	caught	the fish.
The animals	wanted	some food.
The two brothers	saw	Jesus.
Peter's wife	wants	the money.

Some verbs do not take objects — e.g. the verbs in these sentences.

All the men stood up.

The boy sat in the boat.

Many people live in the city.

His son came home.

They went to the lake.

I stayed at home.

Peter is happy.

A — Grammar and Exercises

1. Short Forms 2. Statements and Questions

Short Forms

Instead of saying I am his brother we may say I'm his brother.

I'm is the short form for I am. The a is left out and the apostrophe (') is used instead.

Examples of short forms —

		is			are
he's	(he is)		there's	(there is)		we're	(we are) she's	(she is)		Peter's	(Peter is)		they're	(they are)
it's	(it is)					you're	(you are)

		will					am
I'll	(I will)		he'll	(he will)		I'm	(I am) you'll	(you will)		she'll	(she will) we'll	(we will)		it'll	(it will)
they'll	(they will)

Short forms of words with not —

isn't	(is not)		won't	(will not)		doesn't	(does not) aren't	(are not)		don't	(do not)		didn't	(did not) wasn't	(was not)

Short forms are used in speech and informal writing.

Sentences with short forms —

He's in the garden	(He is)	She'll believe you	(She will)
You're happy	(You are)	There's food at home	(There is)
We're his sons	(We are)	They'll take the money	(They will)
Peter isn't here	(is not)	I don't know the way	(do not)

Exercise 37
